Consent for issuing a RealMe verified identity to a child under 14 years of age

Who can give consent?

Consent to issue a RealMe verified identity to a child must be given by a parent named on the child's birth record or by a legal guardian.

A legal guardian is someone who has been appointed through a court process or in a parent's Will.

If you are the child's legal guardian, you may need to provide the original:

- Guardianship Order or Registrar's approval if you are an appointed guardian of the child OR
- the parent's Will appointing you as a testamentary guardian and the parent's death certificate.

A parenting order (also known as a custody or access order) does not give you legal guardianship. A step-parent is not a child's legal guardian unless they have been appointed through a court process or in a parent's Will.

The Care of Children Act 2004 requires that, where practicable, all guardians of a child must be consulted when making decisions about important matters affecting the child. The parent or guardian completing the application for the child is responsible for consulting with the other parent(s) or guardian(s) of the child.
